The University of Sydney Union will only collect personal information for lawful purposes. Your details will be used to match you with a student (if applicable), communicate information to you about the volunteer program you are enrolled in and other volunteering opportunities within The Union. As part of the School Tutoring Program's matching process, your phone number and email address will be distributed to your student. You may refuse for your details to be given to your student, which will mean that communication between the two parties will be through the School Tutoring Program Office and will require a minimum of 24 hours notice to cancel or change meeting times. If your details change or you would like to be withdrawn from the volunteer database please contact the Member & Community Development Programs office on (02) 9563-6010 or via email volunteer@usu.usyd.edu.au. In taking part in this program you are giving The University of Sydney Union consent to use any images taken of you during your participation in the program for promotional use only. If you do not want this to occur, please contact the MCDP on (02) 9563-6010 or via email volunteer@usu.usyd.edu.au
